

Title

Team Management and Development

Duration

2-3 Days

Objectives

You learn and discover the basics of promising teamwork.
 You experience your potentials, your roles within the team and work out the improvement opportunities of your team that can directly implemented in the form of an action plan within the daily work.

Content

- Basics for successful team development and work
- What characterises your team?
- The status quo of your team
- The roles within your team
- Work out together with the team development potentials and improvement opportunities
- Development of a concrete action plan

Target Group

Executives, employees and self-employed persons that work in or with a team and are interested in promising cooperation.

Comments

No basic knowledge required.